

What do you want German-American relations to look like?

Do you want to discuss U.S. politics, economics, culture, and society?

What does America mean to you?

What do you want to ask a U.S. Diplomat?

What do you want a U.S. Diplomat to know?

The U.S. Consul General in Hamburg, Jason Chue, is inviting applicants from Hamburg schools to join the

Consul General's Youth Advisory Council This year's theme: DEMOCRACY & DIVERSITY

Why should you join the Consul General's Youth Advisory Council?

- Your voice matters, make it heard!
- Join the conversation! U.S. Consul General Jason Chue is interested in what you have to say about the United States, the German-American relationship, and about the role of democracy & diversity in your lives. YOU set the agenda!
- Participate in monthly Youth Advisory Council meetings (October 2022 until June 2023) and member-led activities.
- Connect and engage with other young leaders from Hamburg – be part of a group of fifteen students

Requirements:

- Enrollment in a Hamburg school, 9-12th grade at the beginning of the current school year
- Commitment to attend monthly meetings and willingness to engage, listen, debate, and be respectful of others and their opinions.
- Proficiency in English – (does not have to be perfect) 🌍

HOW TO APPLY

Email us by September 15, 2022:
HamburgPA@state.gov

Let us know - in no more than one page - why you want to be part of the Youth Advisory Council, what democracy & diversity mean to you, and what you consider the value of transatlantic relations.